Cole Everard, the steward's son and Daphne's childhood friend. Former friend, that is. Raised on the grounds of Cheriton, Cole Everard never imagined he would be named heir, but he is determined to prove himself worthy of the position. Unfortunately, that is easier said than done, especially when Daphne arrives claiming he is anything but worthy. Instead of their close friendship, Cole is met with cold indifference-which would sting much less if he wasn't entirely in love with her...

Hurt and betrayed, Daphne believes her only choice is to undermine her new rival and reclaim what is rightfully hers. But that plan becomes increasingly difficult, what with Cole's infuriating charm and kindness. When fate offers Daphne a second chance, will she take it or risk it all for the promise of love? Romancing Her Rival is the second in a series of books about five friends. Yours, Forever After Feb 21 2022 Fifteen years ago, Prince Graham of Ardglass barely escaped from the ancestral castle with his young life. Rescued by a magical creature and spirited off to a faraway valley, he grew into a strong, capable man--never shirking his duties on the farm, but forever bitter over his father's betrayal. But just when he has finally come to terms with being lost and staying lost, a visitor arrives in his valley and changes everything. After a lifetime spent lost in his beloved books, Prince Emory awakens to find his villainous aunt working to usurp the throne of Fontaine. When she sends him on a dangerous quest, he's certain the journey is a trap, but he's not willing to accept defeat without a fight. But a fight is something Rory is unprepared and untrained for, until he's saved by a handsome, unassuming farmhand and his snooty, smug, and surprisingly talkative unicorn.
